Fancy Silks

For Waists.

Types would tell you a bungling story of the beauty of these Silk Novelties.

The only way to get an idea of their hypnotic charm is to visit our Silk department in person.

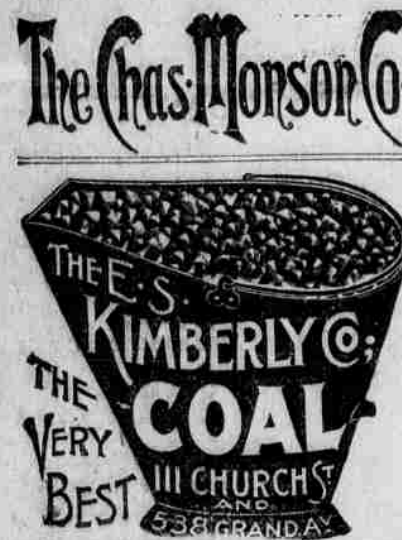

Come without any reference to a purchase! Come to look! Come to a free entertainment!

Velvets!

We always thought we carried the choicest lines of Velvets in the market.

But to be doubly sure we examined many other lines, those of the best importers, and came back to our regular lines more than satisfied that they were the best.

Best in nap, finish, color and durability.

In Our Drug Department

Prescriptions of all kinds are carefully compounded by experienced chemists. While we have the only complete line of Homoeopathic remedies in the city, the impression that we handle only these goods is not correct. As nearly every physician in the State who dispenses his own medicine is a customer, we are obliged to carry in stock many preparations not found in the ordinary drug store.

Everything needed in the sick room may be obtained at 84 Church and 61 Center streets.

HYPERION.

Rhea will present her great success, "Josephine, Empress of the French," at the Hyperion to-night. The lovely Rhea is a student, a good generous friend, a wonderful dramatic instructor and with all her amiable and kindly qualities is a strict disciplinarian. The great production of "Josephine, Empress of the French," was rehearsed by the brilliant lady; the search for the plates, that the costumes should be exactly of the Napoleon Bonaparte period, was pursued by her. The making of the costumes was virtually interrupted by Rhea and she insisted on devoting her time to the rehearsals. The star invited the members of her company to Newport, where she rehearsed them from early morning till late in the afternoon and then followed a delightful entertainment each evening. Sale of seats now open.

Canary and Lefebvre's great production, "The Merry World," comes Friday and Saturday evening with matinee on Saturday. "The Merry World" is a ludicrous burlesque on all the latest dramatic productions of the day. The piece opens in the garret of an impetuous playwright and ends in the brilliant furore of a theater in which Trilby is singing and during the interval from the first to the last scene the auditor has seen the life of the Sans Gene, Napoleon, and the crafty Fouché, the Herald Square at night time and taken a turn of the round of the comic operas listening to Wang, Rob Roy, Robin Hood, Madeline, The Little Trooper and others, besides seeing Svengali, Trilby and Little Billie. Sale of seats opens Wednesday.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

How delightfully cool, was the expression heard on all sides last night by the large audience present. The temperature was so much cooler than out of doors that the hand fans provided by Mr. Bunnell were not used at all. The three large electric fans were all in use during the evening, in fact they are in use hours before the doors are open.

Mr. Bunnell presents to his patrons the first three nights of this week one of the latest melo-dramas entitled, "A Ride for Life." That the large audience enjoyed it was apparent from the great applause which was given. One moment the audience was in suspense as the hero was in danger of losing his life, and the next the comedian of the play was convulsing the audience with laughter over his comical work. The scenes of the play are laid in Mexico and New Orleans. All the scenery is carried by the company.

During the third act a full sized locomotive is introduced with all the auxiliaries, steam, fire and smoke. The story of the play is very interesting from beginning to end. Of the company special mention should be made of Allan Lawrence, Harry Driscoll, J. N. Drew, J. P. Winters, Miss Bessie Taylor, Miss Carrie Ezler, Miss Mabel Taloferrio. A number of specialties were introduced during the performance.

The piece will be repeated this and to-morrow evening.

Commencing to-day and during the rest of the season there will be matinees Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday afternoons at 2 p. m. Matinee prices, 10c, 20c and 35c.

The Pantheorama will be on view free to the patrons nightly in the exhibition hall.

The Grand opera house buffet is now open to the public. It is located in the front room of the theater, adjoining the hallway. Here can be found a full line of first class candies and cigars. An elegant silver soda fountain is also to be found there.

Still another addition has been made by Mr. Bunnell, and that is an elegant smoking room in the rear of the box office. It is thrown open to the patrons, and will prove a welcome addition to the theater.

"The Girl I Left Behind Me," an exceedingly popular and successful play, comes on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings this week. It is the work of two very skillful and popular writers, David Belasco, whose writings for the Madison Square Lyceum, Empire and other theaters have made him famous, and Mr. Franklin Fyles, the veteran and versatile dramatic critic of the New York Sun. There will be matinees on Friday and Saturday. Prices, 10, 20 and 25 cents. This is the same production that had such a successful run at the Academy of Music, New York, and it will be seen here with all the scenery, costumes, houses and military display as used in the original production, New Haven being the only place where this great play will be seen at popular prices.

POLI'S WONDERLAND THEATER.

The usual Monday crowds were the rule yesterday and last evening at Wonderland. It always seems as if standing room would be at a discount on Mondays even if the theater were twice as large. Jerome and Alexis made a sensation in their wonderful bending and acrobatic twisting specialty. Special scenery and brilliant electrical effects make their act extremely picturesque, and Mr. Jerome, who is a Mr. Honan of this city, was loudly applauded at every performance yesterday and last evening. Mazur and Abasco did some lightning acrobatic work, which was made exceedingly humorous by quaint comedy, and Miss Little Western's extraordinary execution on twenty-two different musical instruments charmed everyone. Others on the bill who pleased all who saw them are Gracy and Burnett, Miss Maude Beverly, the Myers, Matt Parnam, and Carroll and Larkin. Performances every evening and afternoon and ladies admitted afternoons to all parts of the house for ten cents. Evening prices for everybody, 10 15 and 20 cents.
